❖ 2017

This picture was taken at Angkor Wat in Khmer New Year Ceremony. It's such a wonderful moment for me. It's so exhausted but I really enjoy this trip. I hope to have a chance like this next time. It's a special time for me to have a trip with them. They make me feel comfortable all the time. I'm so lucky to have friends like them.

❖ 2018

I have a lot of things to do in 2018 but the most important thing I want to do first is to study hard and try to improve my English as well as I can, especially grammar and vocabulary. One more thing, I have to learn more about program and explore everything that related to the computer.
